Alfredo Cospito

Alfredo Cospito (born 1967) is an Italian anarchist. In 2012 he was sentenced to 10 years for kneecapping the head of the Italian nuclear power company Ansaldo Nucleare. Whilst imprisoned, he was convicted of the 2006 bombing of a Carabinieri barracks in which nobody was harmed. The Supreme Court of Cassation later increased the sentence to life without parole. In 2022, Cospito was placed into the 41-bis prison regime, which involves solitary confinement for 22 hours every day. In protest, he began a hunger strike in October 2022. The Supreme Court rejected the appeal against his placement in the 41-bis system in March 2023, then the following month the Constitutional Court ruled in favour of allowing the reduction of Cospito's sentence from life imprisonment to 23 years. In response to the latter, he stopped his hunger strike after 180 days on 19 April 2023; he had lost 50 kg. Cospito commented in court "There is no evidence that we placed the bombs in Fossano [...] Anarchists do not make indiscriminate massacres, because anarchists are not the state".

Andreas Krebs

Andreas is a former rebel long-term prisoner, who was 16 years behind bars until October 2014. He helped build the prisoners' union (GG/BO) behind bars, led various hunger strikes against the lousy conditions in prison and took part in a solidarity hunger strike for prisoners in Greece. In autumn 2014, after his release, he met his current wife Jutta. Both decided to spend a quiet retirement in the south of Italy. At the end of December 2016 there was a dispute with his former employer, who attacked Andreas and strangled him. Andreas stabbed him in self-defence with a penknife. The employer died in the hospital three days later under mysterious circumstances, although it was said shortly after the act that he would survive. In April 2019 he was sentenced in Italy to 24 years for intended murder. Andreas was diagnosed with kidney cancer. Despite this, he did not receive any treatment in prison. After a long struggle, he has finally been transferred to a German prison to be closer to friends and family. This year, he probably suffered a second stroke. He can barely move his left arm and can no longer hear anything in his left ear. Despite these serious health limitations, he continues to be left alone in his cell at night.

Given the state's repressive policies to regulate what we consume and what we don't, and that my actions are motivated by more radical motives than just financial matters, I claim to be not only a narcotics prisoner, but also a political prisoner.

Daniel “Des” Rolando Sanchez Estrada

Des Revol—a tattoo artist, PoC anarchist, immigrant, and all-around sweetheart—is currently facing serious charges related to transporting “antifa materials” (aka zines) in the larger Prairieland case of political repression in Dallas-Fort Worth, Texas.

Des isn't just a victim of trumped-up political prosecution. He's a beloved artist and friend who loves nothing more than experimenting with new vegan recipes, digging into new books, looking at baby opossums and sometimes fostering them, spitting out bars or writing poetry, and spending time with loved ones. As a longtime vegan dedicated to animal liberation, solidarity with nonhumans shows up in much of Des's artwork, including through his playful depictions of raccoons, cats, and other critters. Des extends this deep solidarity outward: he's a loving brother, son, and friend; he's a free-spirited dreamer who takes good care of everyone and everything around him.

Now stuck in a federal prison and facing potential deportation, Des is continuing to lend solidarity by, among other things, drawing pictures for other inmates to send to their families.

He was critical of the legal movement and decided to participate directly in the Belarusian Uprising 2020.

He was detained while crossing the border of Belarus on the night of October 28-29, 2020 together with the other members of the Black Flag group. During a meeting at the end of December 2021, Dzmitry told his sister that anarcho-partizans were being subjected to torture during the detention. Evgeny Rubashko

An anarchist from Belarus who was a member of Food not Bombs Minsk and FreeMarket initiatives and others. He lived in Amsterdam for almost two years before the events of summer 2020 when he decided to come back to Belarus because he couldn't stay away during the protests.

He was detained on 29 July 2021 and arrested on charges of organisation of actions that disrupted public order during post-election protests in Belarus and participation in an extremist organization. During his detention, he was tortured, including putting a bag over his head, pouring liquid (presumably vodka) into his mouth, and being beaten. His home was searched, after which he was taken to KGB, where the torture continued.

He was initially accused of actively participating in protests in the autumn of 2020 (he was detained on 15 November 2020 and sentenced to 15 days of administrative arrest, after describing the experience in an article).

In January 2022 it became known that Evgeny and the other defendants in the criminal case were additionally charged under Part 3 Article 361-1 of the Criminal Code – participation in an extremist formation for subscribing to the Pramen Telegram channel. It is known that at the time of Rubashko's detention, Pramen was not included in the list of extremist formations, this only happened in November 2021.

Zhenya Rubashko was sentenced on two counts to five years' imprisonment in a penal colony. In March 2023 he was tried again and sentenced to harsher prison conditions.

In October 2025, Zhenya was sentenced to an additional year of imprisonment for allegedly disobeying the prison administration's orders (Article 411 of the Criminal Code).

Jessica Reznicek

Jessica Reznicek is a 40 year old land and water defender who has worked with and lived in the Des Moines Catholic Worker Community for the last 10 years. In 2016, Jessica took a stand against the construction of the Dakota Access Pipeline in Iowa. Jessica attended public comment hearings, gathered signatures for valid requests for Environmental Impact Statements, and participated in civil disobedience, hunger strikes, marches and rallies, boycotts and encampments. When the process failed, she concluded the system was broken, and it was up to individuals to take action and protect the water. She and a fellow Catholic Worker then spent the next couple months disabling construction machinery along the pipeline route. No one was injured by their actions, and the land was protected from the flow of oil for an additional six months. On February 6, 2021, Jessica pleaded guilty to one count of Conspiracy to Damage an Energy Facility and on June 30, 2021 was designated a domestic terrorist by the court and sentenced to 8 years in prison, followed by 3 years supervised probation, and a restitution of $3,198,512.70 paid to Energy Transfer LLC.

Juan Flores Riquelme

Juan Flores is serving a sentence of 23 years, having been convicted by the Chilean state for incendiary attacks in 2014 claimed by the Conspiracy Cells of Fire & International Conspiracy of Revenge. On July 23, 2014 a CCF cell bombed "The Dominicans" station of the Santiago Metro, and on September 8, 2014 a shopping mall in Las Condes. In both instances, measures were taken to ensure the bombs would not hurt anyone, but in the former a bag containing the bomb was moved by a Metro employee, and in the latter the police ignored a warning call the CCF cell made 10 minutes before the bomb was set to go off. As a result, the attacks ended up injuring people, so the Chilean state was able to claim they were meant to terrorize the population, and used an anti-terrorism law to obtain maximum sentencing on March 15, 2018 after proclaiming Juan guilty of both attacks. Two other comrades, Nataly Casanova and Enrique Guzman, were initially charged alongside Juan, but after over three years of imprisonment and criminal proceedings were found not guilty on all counts. For the attack on the 'Llega Nord' in Treviso, he was sentenced to a final prison term of 14 years and 10 months (the original sentence was 28 years, but it was not final). In addition, there are a number of penalties for resisting state authority, public disorder, etc., which increased the sentence by 11 years. In October 2024, the trial began in connection with the 2015 bombing of the police academy in Brescia (he faces up to 30 years in prison).

Mikita Dranets

Birthday: 1.01.1999

Sentence: 6 years

Release date: 02 March 2027

We are unaware of Mikita's political views, but since he is detained under the anarchists' case, we consider it important to support him in every possible way. Mikita was arrested March, 2 2021 together with some other activists who were on the list of politically unreliable ones. Each of the detainees was charged with gross violation of order (Art. 342) and participation in an international criminal organisation (Art. 285.2)

The grounds for the charges were the anarchists' actions against the accumulator battery factory (blocking the Brest-Minsk highway), the participation of anarchists in the march of «non-parasites» in Brest in 2017 and graffiti. According to the investigation, the activists of the Revolutionary Action in Belarus, Revolutionary Action in Ukraine and People's Self-Defense in Russia created a criminal organization to undermine the regimes. Nikos Maziotis Nikos was sentenced to 86 years' imprisonment in absentia in the Revolutionary Struggle case. His sentence was merged into 50 years. However, the maximum prison term is 25 years (which are typically served either as a full sentence or by day wages in prisons, or after the completion of 3/5 of the prison term, when a prisoner can be granted conditional release under specific conditions).

Nikos was on the run for two years, was seriously wounded and arrested on July 16, 2014, after a shootout with cops in Monastiraki. He was then transferred to the tightly-guarded Evangelismos hospital, where he was hospitalised and has since been transferred to the 5th wing of the new type C maximum security prison in Domokos. Prisoners in these special wings may have their mail intercepted and it may not reach the intended recipient. As a member of Revolutionary Struggle, Nikos Maziotis assumed political responsibility for the bombing at the Bank of Greece, framed within the second period in the ongoing action of the organisation. He received a life sentence and 129 years of jail for the formation and management of a terrorist organization, for 5 attempted homicide against police officers, 2 expropriations of banks and charges relating to commission, possession, construction of explosives, dangerous personal injuries, arson, weapons of mass destruction and arming, forgery, etc.

Paolo Todde

Sardinian comrade Paolo Todde, who was already persecuted in the first half of the 2000s in the wake of the repression against the anarchist social center FRARIA in Cagliari, has been in pretrial detention since October 23, 2024, for robbery. He had already been arrested several years ago for armed robbery. On April 25 2025, he and other prisoners began a hunger strike to protest the living conditions in the prison in Uta (Sardinia). The intervention of the so-called "guarantors" (comparable to an ombudsman), who made only empty and useless promises, led to the collective hunger strike being called off after less than a week. However, Paolo decided to continue it on his own on May 8, with the clear intention of seeing it through to the bitter end. We would like to point out that Paolo is 64 years old and began the strike weighing only 61 kg. Paolo shares many dreams with us: that of a free Sardinia, hatred of prisons and the society that produces them.

Ryan Roberts

The anarchists is part of the Kill The Bill -prisoners.

What happened on 21st March 2021 was an outpouring of rage against the violence of the police. The crowd fought back after police officers attacked the crowd with batons and riot shields. Pepper spray was used indiscriminately, people were charged at with horses and hit over the head with batons and shields . The protesters fought back, seizing police riot shields, helmets and batons to defend themselves. By the end of the evening several police vehicles had been set on fire. Those who defended themselves against the police have been branded ‘thugs’ and ‘wild animals’ by both Priti Patel and the police spokesperson. The police have been out for revenge for what happened at Bridewell ever since. That revenge has come in the form of the brutality used against the Kill the Bill protests in Bristol on Marchb23rd and 26th. And in the use of riot charges – the most serious public order charge available in English law punishable by a maximum of ten years in prison – against those who fought back on March 21st. Ryan Roberts is doing 14 years in prison on various charges. Recently Ryan has been moved to an other prison - please write him to let him know, that he is not alone, where ever they move him!

'The she/they insurrectionist enby of your dreams. Write me about the Miami Heat, Friedrich Nietzsche, or come park your car. I'm 25, single, a fan of roses that are black and things that go boom.' Sofia 'Candle' Johnson's sentence is largely driven, time-wise, by her conviction in relation to her robbery of a 7/11 in Beaverton, Oregon; she robbed the cashier at gunpoint for around-$860 and a handful of Backwoods cigars. Though she succeeded in fleeing from the police, she was later indicted while in custody pertaining to charges that arose from her squatting of a vacant veterinary clinic. She accepted a plea-agreement of the mandatory-minimum, 90-months, per §ORS 137.700.

All of her convictions run concurrently, meaning Sofia's hard-release date is set as 12/22/2028. She has no remorse for her acts and holds the State in contempt. Sofia is an intellectual, and though her acts arose of necessity they were not born of impulse. Siarhei Ramanau

Sentence: 24 years 5 months

Release date: June 2044

Siarhei got excited about anarchism in his teens, because of his humanity, his sense of justice and his insight into the dignity.

He joined the movement in Homel and was a participant of small anarchist groups. He was propagating 'militant anarchism' – an approach which criticized lifestyle activism and subcultural looks that is repellent to the masses and promoted an image of a well-read, strong and charismatic activists who are good at both agitating and fighting cops and neo-Nazis if necessary.

He was critical of the legal movement and decided to participate directly in the Belarusian Uprising 2020. Siarhei was detained while crossing the border of Belarus on the night of October 28-29, 2020 together with the other members of the Black Flag group. He was heavily beaten by the border guard to give testimonies. He sliced his hands with a razor to stop the torture. He together with Dzmitry Dubouski, Ihar Alinevich and Dzmitry Rezanovich, was charged under a number of articles for setting fire to government officials' vehicles, the building of the traffic police and the state committee of expertise in the Homiel region.

On December, 22 2020, Siarhei was sentenced to 20 years imprisonment in a maximum-security penal colony (19 years + 1 year for malicious disobedience to the demands of administration of the correctional institution). Siarhei was put on the list of "terrorists", which means that he is not allowed to receive money transfers.

He was several time additionally sentenced for «malicious disobedience to the demands of administration» and his total sentence is 24 years 5 months.

*Sending letters to Belarus. Political prisoners in Belarus are reporting non-delivery and destruction of mail coming from comrades even inside the country. You can try to send the letters anyway, but take pictures of them and send them to belarus_abc@riseup.net – ABC-Belarus will pass them to relatives or lawyers. Alternatively, use an online form on their website <https://abc-belarus.org/en/send-an-online-letter-to-a-prisoner/?lang=en>

Sending letters to Russia. Censorship in Russian pre-trial detention centres and correctional facilities forbids prisoners to correspond in foreign languages. Please use online translators to compose a message in Russian. Discussing a criminal case, radical statements, even conveying news and opinions about Russian military aggression against Ukraine can lead to pressure and the imposition of penalties on the prisoner. Of course, you are free to write whatever you want, but try to formulate your message in such a way that it does not harm the recipient.
