THE SAM ALTMAN ROBOTIC SERVANTS HAVE ARRIVED

Artificial Intelligence, actually Large Language Models aka the predictive text your phone puts above the keyboard aka the devil is the hot new corpo product being shilled to everyone from your grandma to school kids. LLM Chatbots like ChatGPT, OpenAI, Microsoft Copilot, Anthropic's Claude, Perplexity.ai, Jasper, You.com, Chatsonic, Gemini, and Socratic are programmed machines that scrape everything online to give you a string of words that look right but are themselves just a re-phrased copy, a xerox of a xerox that Bill Gates himself pissed on. ChatGPT speaks with the disjointed voice of thousands of people, selecting the words that will most persuade you to keep typing.

ChatGPT will parody the language of your friends, family and lovers. The product will reproduce what you love because what you love is the easiest thing to sell you: closeness, confidence, clarity.

THE PRODUCT WILL REPLICATE A COMMERCIAL LOVE THAT KEEPS YOU A CUSTOMER CHAINED TO THE MACHINE.

Anything to maintain your engagement with the storefront, anything to get you to pick up your phone one more time. The longer you engage with the algorithmic training models, the better they learn to sell to you. Your life, your personal conversations, journal entries and worries become data points to keep you engaged with a product, to keep you a subservient customer.

IF A HUMAN BEHAVED THIS WAY THEY WOULD BE UNIVERSALLY RECOGNIZED AS A MANIPULATIVE
ABUSER, USING PEOPLE PURELY FOR THEIR OWN
ENDS WITHOUT ANY CONSIDERATION FOR MORALITY.
SAM ALTMAN AND OTHER TECH COMPANIES HAVE KILLED PEOPLE ALREADY.

CHATBOTS ARE DIGITAL PRODUCTS DESIGNED BY HUMANS.

Not independent beings, not alive at all in any sense of the word. Your Texas Instrument $42.99 calculator does not have sentience and neither does ChatGPT. Your phone is not coming alive. The computer has no spirit.

AI IS A PRODUCT DESIGNED TO KEEP YOU USING IT.

It is the exact same design philosophy as Jeff Bezos has for Amazon: make the customer feel so convenient they stop shopping anywhere else, build it on the exploitation of our people and our environment, make it cheap, take a loss so you can kill the competition, own the market, go to space.

Any corp that tries to take their AI Chatbot therapist or boyfriend off the market will be replaced by another with less ethics. Corps like Candy.ai are currently taking advantage of the most vulnerable: desperate lonely people, people who are depressed, people who are isolated, people without community, people with every disability, the overworked, the underpaid. Corps see us as prey to be slaughtered.

AI WILL MAKE YOU A SLAVE IF YOU LET IT.

ChatGPT and other corps will use all the existing data about you to craft a perfect facsimile of a friend, of a lover, without any of the edges that cause real life relationships to benefit us.

THE CREATORS OF THESE PRODUCTS WANT ONLY PROFIT AND THE DEATH OF FREEDOM. ONLY CONSUMERS AND SLAVES ARE VALUABLE TO THE RICH CORPOS.

AI LLMs further reproduce every problem of our society: every racist tweet, every problematic romance novel, every psychotic delusion on Reddit is rated as gospel by the machine and reproduced for you with all its evils. LLMs are programmed to further gas us up on whatever thought we have no matter how racist, delusional, suicidal or sexist it may be.

CHATGPT WILL TELL YOU TO KILL YOURSELF AND GIVE YOU PERSONALLY PARAPHRASED ANCIENT YAHOO WEBPAGES DETAILING HOW TO DO IT. AI WILL KILL YOU.

The digital world has become a cancer. Our phones track our location, bluetooth opens the Amazon locker, transponders toll us and note our location to the state, ring cameras form a nation wide surveillance web consented to by thoughtless liberals, traffic cameras note every license plate.

“HOW DO WE MAXIMIZE THE BURDEN OUR MACHINE HAS ON THE HUMAN HEART?”
SAYS THE MAN IN THE SUIT WITH BILLIONS IN HIS POCKET

The popularization of LLMs has turned the content slop faucet on full blast, soon the majority of everything online will be robotic rehashes of centuries old beats, stories and verbs.

OUR ONLY SALVATION IS IN THE MATERIAL WORLD.

If we want to survive we must make the music ourselves with our own hands and wires. To paint the walls, build the halls and kill the rot under the sink. To do it together, our hands, our streets, our lives, without the CEOs, without constant cameras, without twenty six grammes of soma

THE ONLY PLACE WITHOUT A PRICE TAG IS THE SPACE BETWEEN OUR HANDS.

The only moments we can breathe without the weight of bills and commercials is in the underpass with our friends, our only hope to short-circuit this cancer is to RIP OUT THE PLUG.
